DR. CLIFFORD POLLOCK

The 1989 edition of SPIRIT is dedicated to the memory of Dr. Clifford Pollock. Dr. Pollock's contributions to the community and the students of Mill River are manifold. Through the auspices of the Shreve Foundation Scholarships Dr. Pollock was instrumental in making it possible for deserving students to further their studies. As a scholar and humanitarian he will be long remembered by all who knew his work. As a fellow community member, he will be missed.

HOME

Every year is busy for the band here at Mill River in that we have no season to limit us. We represent Mill River year 'round, and we're proud of it. This year, however, has been even busier than usual. In addition to our normal activities — the concerts, the local parades — many of our individual students participated in the Vermont Youth Orchestra, The Rutland City Band, and District, All-State and All-New England Music Festivals. The band as a whole also had some special projects this year, one of which has had us racing about in an organized frenzy as we raised a grand total of $33,000 so that we could represent New England at the 4th of July Parade in Washington DC. That works out to about $230 per student — but hey, we're worth it! Our fund-raisers included a bowl-a-thon, a candy sale, a school dance, and Mr. Giles' pet project, the Penny Drive.

Also underway this year is an effort to receive varsity letters for the outstanding membership in, and dedication to the Mill River bands. We hope this form of recognition will be available to all future band-members.

And, from the Class of 89 to all the Mill River bands to come, we leave with two wishes: First, that Mr. Giles will someday locate his hair (just kidding, Papa Smurf!) . . . And second . . . that the members of the band will always take pride in the school and their music, and keep proving that music is not only an art, but a sport, for life and forever.

CHUCK AUSTIN on Improv:
"Wooaaaaahhhhh Aaargh!"
Translation: "Wooaaaaahhhhh Aaargh!"
"She will return! Here she comes!" — JENNI HETZEL

MELISSA RAIFORD says that Improv are "stressing, tiring and fulfilling." And in a moment of eloquence added, "I had fun."
"To be continued . . ." — JEFF BRUCKERHOFF

IMPROV 40

Improv 40 is a group of ten talented young actors who work without sets or scripts in much the same way that seasoned acrobats work without a net. Mr. Marsh admits, "It's probably very dangerous to put ten high school kids on a stage without a script," but anyone who has seen the company perform know that the risk has been worth taking.

During an Improv 40 performance, suggestions are taken from the audience which then become the foundations for the scene. Part of the form's popularity lies in the fact that each scene is unpredictable for the actors while giving the audience just what it asks for.

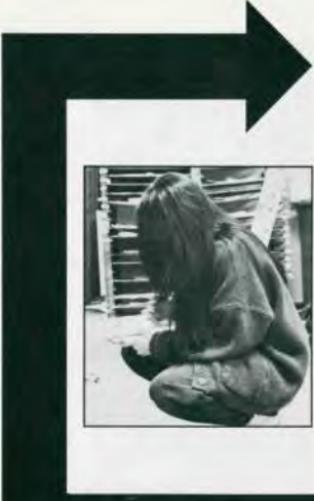

Improv 40 has performed at Mill River and the Ripley House to delighted audiences and press acclaim. We all look forward to future performances by the company.

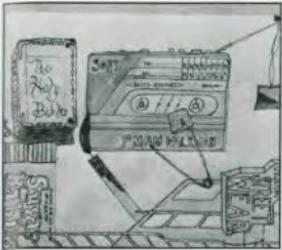

"Who! We'll be right back after this commercial! ACE!" — DAVID WEART

DIANTHIA KORZUN: "The world is one big improv and we're merely walk-ons with character and a goal and that is to fit in. A Sigmund Freudian statement."

"You can do anything you want when you Improv. Where else can you go and actually tell the actors stage what to do?" — ZAK GRACE
P.S. — "And there aren't any lines to learn either."

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

"The Girl's Varsity Basketball Team had a fine season. Each player should be proud of her accomplishments throughout the season. As their coach, I am proud of each one of them and enjoyed being a part of this team. Their hard work reflected their record of 16-6 and representation in the State Semi-finals in Barre. For the four seniors, I hope they have some fond memories they can look back on in future years. I will miss them!"

Coach Shirley Bruso

"I believe that if you work your hardest there is no way that you can't be the best."

— Julie Rabtoy

Back: Mrs. Bruso, Angie Baker, Karen Adams, Kara Sementilli, Kendra Muelling, Jessica Cecot, Karen Smith, Lisa Robbins, Stacy Carpenter
Front: Becky Armstrong, Julie Rabtoy, Kim Morse, Lora Colvin

"We had our share of rough times during the season, but that is when the closeness becomes the strongest. Together, we went further than expected and we all should be very proud!" — Kim Morse

"Our team worked very hard this year to bring about the success that we achieved. The friendship and memories we had during the season will last forever." — Becky Armstrong

"Team members gain many memories during their time together. These memories are not only to be nostalgia. Learn from your experiences, good and bad. Take them from high school. Grow to be a better person for them." — Lora Ann Colvin

BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

"You can't be young forever but you can be immature all your life!" — Wayne Holder
— Joe Phillips

"The 88-89 basketball season was a season in which if things could go right ... they did. It was a special season, spent with special people, filled with special memories. I thank the players, parents, faculty, staff, and fans for their hard work, support, and enthusiasm." — "WOW!!!"

— Coach Wilson

Back Row: M. Carlson, P. Kelly, J. Squier, J. Smith, C. McDonald, W. Holder, Mr. Wilson
Front Row: P. Chambers, S. Cole, J. Phillips, J. Gee, C. Hahn, C. Fuller, C. Sementilli

"Thanks for a great basketball season Mr. Wilson." — Jessey Gee

"Nobody's better than anybody else, we all have to live in this world." — Shawn Cole

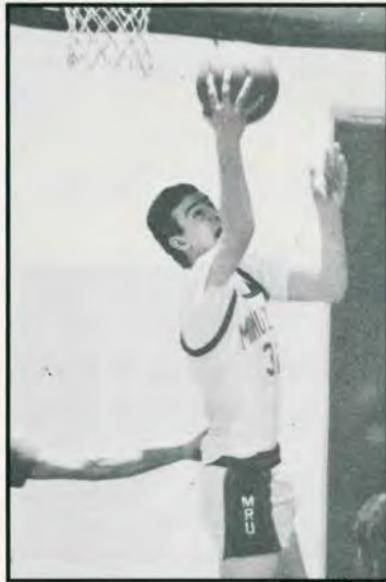

"Winning the State Championships was a dream come true and it is true!" — Joe Phillips

"The 88-89 basketball season was a season in which if things could go right ... they did. It was a special season, spent with special people, filled with special memories. I thank the players, parents, faculty, staff, and fans for their hard work, support, and enthusiasm." — "WOW!!!"

— Coach Wilson

"I thank Coach Wilson for a great year and the team who worked hard to win states!" — Phil Chambers

"Dedication, hard work, great attitudes, confidence ... STATE CHAMPIONS!" — Chris Sementilli
